

DRIVING BUSINESS CLARITY AND COHERENCE

Do you really understand the DNA of your business?

Do you really know how to connect the critical business aspects?

GREAT BUSINESSES HAVE TWO COMMON TRAITS — CLARITY AND COHERENCE.

How Much Clarity and Coherence is There in Your Team/Organization?

Come gain practical insights from Ravi Kathuria. He will challenge your management and leadership perspectives. Kathuria will discuss:

- How to improve business clarity in your own mind, and in other's minds?
- How to take your team/organization to the next level by coherently connecting your mission, vision, strategy, and execution?
- How to develop the traits you need to succeed as a business leader, and as a team member?

Discussion Outline

- Questions from Kathuria
- Kathuria's experiences & insights
- Questions from attendees

About the Speaker

An expert in business performance, Ravi Kathuria is the president of Cohegic Corporation, a management-consulting, executive coaching and sales coaching firm. Having worked with hundreds of executives, and having led major cross-functional management initiatives, Kathuria has mastered how to help organizations improve their strategic and execution capabilities across the board.

Kathuria is a vivacious speaker. Under his leadership, the Houston Planning and Strategic Forum, a non-profit, volunteer organization, grew from a boutique group to Houston's preeminent business association featuring the who's who of major CEOs in Houston.

About the Business Parable

Kathuria is the author of COHERENT STRATEGY AND EXECUTION: An Eye-opening Parable. It is an insightful and engrossing story about a CEO, Trent Wertheimer. Trent believes he is perfect and can take his company to the next level. But the harder he tries, the deeper he digs himself into a hole. This is the story of not just the transformation of Trent's company, but the difficult personal transformation of Trent, and his leadership team.

